NOVA

The Violence Paradox WED Nov 20 | 9p

From suicide bombings to mass shootings, the daily news is enough to convince us that we live in the most violent of times. But best-selling author and polymath Steven Pinker argues that, in fact, we're living in the most peaceful era in our species' existence. In this provocative and surprising two-hour special, Pinker reveals how and why rates of violence have diminished steadily since the dawn of civilization, and he identifies the keys to creating an even more peaceful world in the future.

MON-TUE | Nov 25-26 | 9p

REVEAL YOUR WORLD

i INDEPENDENT LENS

Thought-provoking documentaries about the issues that divide us – and the ideals and beliefs that bind us together ...

Made in Boise | SAT Nov 2 | 11p

This film explores the controversial world of surrogacy through the stories of four women carrying babies for intended parents in the conservative heartland of Idaho – the unregulated and unofficial “surrogacy capital” of the United States.

Decade of Fire | SAT Nov 9 | 11p

The South Bronx looked like a war zone after an epidemic of fires in the 1970s. Abandoned by landlords and city officials, buildings burned almost continuously from an estimated 40 fires a day that razed 80 percent of area housing and displaced half a million residents. Yet a small group of brave community members banded together amidst the rubble to build a better future for their children.

The Interpreters | SAT Nov 16 | 11p

Thousands of local interpreters helped protect U.S. troops on the ground in Iraq and Afghanistan, enabling soldiers to communicate with the local population. But those who took the job were often considered traitors by their own countries. While some have reached safety in the U.S. and Europe, others are stuck in hiding, struggling for safety in the aftermath of war.

Conscience Point | SAT Nov 23 | 11p N

In the summer of 2018, Long Island’s exclusive Shinnecock Hills Golf Club hosted one of the sport’s highest-profile events: the U.S. Open. As throngs of visitors arrived, Rebecca Hill-Genia, a Shinnecock activist, wanted them to understand one thing: that the world-renowned golf course was carved out of a sacred Shinnecock burial ground.
