Women's History Month

KCTS 9 celebrates powerful, creative and innovative women who are changing our world!

Holly Near ^W

FRI Mar 1 | 9p

Experience the power of song in the struggle for equality through the story of feminist singer and activist Holly Near, who for the last 40 years has worked on global social justice coalition-building in the women's and lesbian movements.

Justice Ruth Bader Ginsburg in Conversation ^W

THU Mar 7 | 1p

Associate Supreme Court Justice Ruth Bader Ginsburg, "the Notorious RBG," is a lifelong champion of human rights and gender equality. One of only nine female law students in her 500-person class at Harvard, she went on to become a law professor at Columbia and co-founder of the Women's Rights Project of the ACLU before being appointed to the court in 1993. In this program, she sits down with NPR's Nina Totenberg to discuss her life and work.

Women, War and Peace II ^W

FOUR-PART MINISERIES PREMIERES

MON Mar 25 | 9p

In a year when women mobilized, ran for office and were elected in unprecedented numbers, this acclaimed series returns with four new stories about women's roles in dramatic conflicts and peace settlements across the globe. These stories demonstrate how some of the biggest international issues in recent memory have been shaped by women – women who risked their lives for peace, changing history in the process.

Julius Caesar ^W

FRI Mar 29 | 9p

See Shakespeare as never before in an all-female production of Julius Caesar. Set in a women's prison, this performance is a compelling dramatization of the catastrophic consequences of unchecked political power. In this acclaimed production – directed by Phyllida Lloyd – Shakespeare's famous discourse on power, loyalty and tragic idealism is heightened against the backdrop of female incarceration.

what to watch MAR 1-2

Prince Charles at 70

SUN Mar 24 | 8p

This documentary marks the 70th birthday of HRH the Prince of Wales. Prince Charles has been involved in public causes for more than 50 years, championing environmental and social causes long before they reached the mainstream. This film charts his working life as he takes on more duties in support of the Queen. What emerges is an intimate portrait of this longest-serving heir to the throne.

Mrs. Wilson on Masterpiece w

THREE-PART MINISERIES PREMIERES

SUN Mar 31 | 9p

At the outset of World War II, Alison McKelvie took a secretarial job with the Secret Intelligence Service. There, she fell in love with an older man, Major Alexander Wilson, a popular author of spy novels who was doing real intelligence work for the war effort. Little did Alison know, but she was entering a plot as tangled as one of the major's mind-bending fictions. Ruth Wilson stars as her own grandmother Alison in the true story of a woman's search for her husband's real identity.

Special Episode: ^w Astronaut Ellen Ochoa

FRI Mar 8 | 7a

Ready Jet Go! celebrates Women's History Month with a special episode featuring real-life astronaut Ellen Ochoa. Ochoa was the first Hispanic woman to travel to space; she is currently the director of the Johnson Space Center.

In this episode, Ochoa visits the Deep Space Array (DSA) to review an engineering project; there she meets the kids, who are running Sean's lemonade stand to raise money for a rocket to Mars. Together, they solve a problem that helps the kids – and the DSA project.

Louisa May Alcott: The Woman Behind Little Women W

THU Mar 14 | 2:30p

Louisa May Alcott's reputation as a morally upstanding New England spinster, reflecting the conventional propriety of the mid-19th century, was firmly established. In reality, Alcott was a free thinker with democratic ideals and progressive values about women. Alcott also led a literary double life, writing (under a pseudonym) some 30 pulp fiction thrillers that featured characters who were murderers, revolutionaries, cross-dressers and opium addicts.

Secrets of the Dead

King Arthur's Lost Kingdom

WED Mar 27 | 10p

In this fascinating film, Professor Alice Roberts uses exciting new archaeological discoveries to decode the myths of Britain's Dark Ages. History books have depicted the two centuries following the departure of the Romans as violent and chaotic, but how dark were they? With exclusive access to a major new excavation on the Tintagel peninsula in Cornwall, Roberts pulls together evidence that suggests a very different story – and a possible origin for the King Arthur myth.

A rose, by any other name ...

You may have noticed a difference on the cover of this month's viewer guide. Our members spoke, and we listened! Through a few name changes over the years, YOU continued to call this guide what it is, so we made it official: our new name is the KCTS 9 Viewer Guide. We hope you'll continue to use it to find all the wonderful programs on KCTS 9 that you've made possible with your support. Thank you!
