Earth's Sacred Wonders

SERIES PREMIERE

WED Mar 25 | 10p

Many of the world's best-known landmarks have been inspired by faith, and today, more worshippers than ever are flocking to these sacred places. For some people, they're sanctuaries for quiet contemplation; for others, they're sites for astonishing acts of worship, dangerous challenges and extraordinary deeds of devotion. Discover what people do for faith in some of the most sacred places on Earth.

Somewhere South

SERIES PREMIERE

FRI Mar 27 | 9p

Celebrity chef Vivian Howard, host of the award-winning series A Chef's Life, returns to KCTS 9 with her new six-part series. In Somewhere South, Vivian travels the changing South in search of the dishes that connect us all – dumplings, hand pies, porridge and more – but which are expressed in delightfully different ways across cultures. Along the way, she meets new friends and teachers, and as she says, discovers “how breaking bread and sharing a meal can create a comfortable place to have meaningful, memorable conversations.”

Call the Midwife W

SEASON PREMIERE

SUN Mar 29 | 8p

Opening with the funeral of Winston Churchill in January 1965, Season 9 follows the women of Nonnatus House as they enter a bold and innovative era. As the tower blocks multiply and a new East End rises from the ashes of the old, society becomes more prosperous, but more complex. Our familiar team of midwives and medics faces unexpected challenges as the population shifts, rules change, and old diseases come back to haunt them.

Independent Lens: One Child Nation W

MON Mar 30 | 10p

Chinese filmmaker Nanfu Wang's award-winning documentary explores the history of China's one-child policy, a population-control measure that made it illegal for couples to have more than one child. Although the policy ended in 2015, generations of parents and children were scarred by the enforcement of this extreme social experiment. Wang digs fearlessly into her own personal life, weaving her experience as a new mother and the firsthand accounts of her relatives with archival propaganda material and testimony from victims and perpetrators alike.

KCTS 9 Celebrates Women's History Month

Rise Up: Songs of the Women's Movement W

SUN Mar 1 | 8:30p

This dynamic special chronicles the role that music played in the women's movement. Hit songs that became empowering and beloved anthems are performed by Aretha Franklin, Janis Joplin, Helen Reddy, Loretta Lynn, Gloria Gaynor, Dolly Parton, Tina Turner, Annie Lennox and many others. The show also features footage of historic milestones in the women's movement.

American Experience: Amelia Earhart W

TUE Mar 3 | 1p

The first woman to fly solo across the Atlantic, Amelia Earhart was celebrated not only for her daring and determination, but also for her striking looks and outspoken personality. In the end, her courage cost her her life, but her contributions to flight and to women's struggle for equality made Earhart an enduring American hero.

American Masters: Lorraine Hansberry – Sighted Eyes/Feeling Heart W

THU Mar 12 | 1p

Lorraine Hansberry's A Raisin in the Sun depicted the limitations of the American dream through the lives of a black family on Chicago's South Side. The play changed the face of American theater, earning the New York Drama Critics' Circle prize for Best Play of 1959. This documentary examines the renowned playwright's life and work; it features interviews with Hollywood legends such as Sidney Poitier, Ruby Dee, Harry Belafonte and Louis Gossett Jr.

American Experience: Annie Oakley W

MON Mar 16 | 1p

She was the toast of 19th-century London, New York and Paris, and her fans included Chief Sitting Bull, Oscar Wilde and Queen Victoria. Annie Oakley excelled in a man's world by doing what she loved, and won fame and fortune as the little lady from Ohio who never missed a shot.

HEADLINERS gala

Benefiting KCTS 9 and Crosscut

4.30.2020

As the first event of the 2020 Crosscut Festival, the Headliners Gala brings our community together to celebrate and support great public media and journalism in the Pacific Northwest. Providing funding for KCTS 9 and Crosscut, this special event honors newsmakers who take us beyond the headlines.

We are pleased to announce that Judy Woodruff, anchor and managing editor of PBS NewsHour, will be our honored guest for the evening. Woodruff has covered politics and other news for more than four decades at NBC, CNN and PBS.

The Headliners Gala will be held Thursday, April 30, at 6:30 p.m. at the Embassy Suites Pioneer Square – King Street Ballroom. For more information, visit crosscut.com/festival.

The Future of America's Past

SEASON 2 PREMIERE

SUN Mar 8 | 12:30p

Historian Ed Ayers explores sites of complex events in American history, where he meets people working to preserve the past, from park rangers to curators to community activists. In the new season, Ayers visits the sites of racial violence during Chicago's "Red Summer" of 1919; examines the human and environmental costs of the transcontinental railroad; and meets people in Boston and Philadelphia who are working to preserve overlooked perspectives from the Revolutionary War era.

This one-hour special is part of our Women's History Month celebration. Shocked to discover that no girl has ever been president of the United States, Yadina goes on a journey to meet some of history's boldest women and find out exactly how she can do something that's never been done before.

This special will be repeated several times between March 16 and March 22. Visit KCTS9.org for air dates and times of all our children's programs.

KCTS 9 is the only locally owned TV station in Seattle, with members (that's you!) providing the majority of KCTS 9's operating budget. Your support inspires a smarter world, making high-quality drama, news, science, history and performance programs available to the whole community. To you, we say thank you!

The Woman in White

SERIES ENCORE

MON Mar 16 | 2-5p and TUE Mar 17 | 3-5p

Adapted from the 19th-century novel by Wilkie Collins, this five-part mystery series is a spine-tingling delight. The story begins when Walter Hartright, a young drawing master, encounters a ghostly woman dressed all in white on a moonlit road on Hampstead Heath. After offering his assistance to the strange woman, he is later shocked to discover that she has just escaped from a nearby insane asylum. The encounter draws him into a web of mystery and deception that transforms his life forever.

MIDSOMER MURDERS

SEASON PREMIERE

THU Mar 19 | 8p

Work never slows down for Detective John Barnaby (Neil Dudgeon) as he investigates the crimes that plague the picturesque English county of Midsomer. Season 16 includes the 100th episode of this popular mystery series – that's 304 murders, if anyone is counting!

This season, Barnaby teams up with a new sergeant, Charlie Nelson, played by the very dashing Gwilym Lee. Tamzin Malleon returns as Dr. Kate Wilding, Midsomer's no-nonsense pathologist. And on the home front, there's a new addition to the household: John and his wife welcome a baby girl.

Niall Ferguson's Networkworld

THREE-PART SERIES

TUE Mar 17 | 8-11p

In this series, host Niall Ferguson visits network theorists, social scientists and data analysts to explore the history of social networks. From the Reformation and 17th-century witch-hunting through the American Revolution to the nightmare visions of Orwell's 1984, Ferguson explores the intersection of social media, technology and the spread of cultural movements.

Garth Brooks: The Gershwin Prize

SUN Mar 29 | 9p

Country music superstar Garth Brooks, whose hits include "Friends in Low Places," "The Thunder Rolls" and "The Dance," receives the Library of Congress Gershwin Prize for Popular Song. At 57 years old, the Grammy Award-winning Brooks is the youngest-ever recipient of the prize.

Since his debut in 1989, Brooks has become a musical tour de force, bringing his brand of high energy and emotional country music to stadiums and arenas. Today, he's the best-selling solo artist in the United States.
