In Their Own Words Pope Francis & Chuck Berry

TUESDAYS | Jul 20 & 27 | 8p

Using a fresh and innovative combination of interview, archive and state-of-the-art graphics, In Their Own Words is a powerful and intimate journey into the lives and minds of some of the most compelling icons of our time. The premiere episode profiles Pope Francis, and the following week's episode addresses how systemic racism created a backdrop for Chuck Berry to chart a new course for many Black artists.

KCTS 9 Book Club

Local authors are teaming up with KCTS 9, Third Place Books and PBS Books to lead monthly book discussions on themes related to KCTS 9 programming. The virtual conversation (until it's safe for us to get together in person!) event series will take place the third Wednesday of every month. Monthly book selections are made by a rotating group of Washington authors who will also host the virtual discussions. The twist: Authors will select books that aren't their own! Most months, books selected will be fiction, but we may change it up every so often.

Discover our latest book club pick and learn more at KCTS9.org/bookclub.

The Neutral Ground

MON Jul 5 | 9:30p

Comedian and filmmaker C.J. Hunt documents the dispute over the removal of four Confederate monuments in New Orleans. Expanding his scope, C.J. embarks on a journey across the country to find out what it would take to convince America to end its long romance with the Confederacy.

Landfall

SAT Jul 17 | 11:30p

Through shard-like glimpses of everyday life in post-Hurricane María Puerto Rico, Cecilia Aldarondo's Landfall is a cautionary tale for our times. It examines the kinship of these two storms — one environmental, the other economic — juxtaposing competing utopian visions of recovery. Featuring intimate encounters with Puerto Ricans as well as the newcomers flooding the island, Landfall reflects on a question of contemporary global relevance: When the world falls apart, who do we become?

Stateless

SAT Jul 24 | 11:30p

This documentary follows families of those affected by the 2013 Dominican Republic Supreme Court ruling stripping citizenship from Dominicans of Haitian descent. The ruling rendered more than 200,000 people without nationality, identity or a homeland. In this dangerous climate, attorney Rosa Iris mounts a grassroots campaign, challenging electoral corruption and advocating for social justice.

Mayor

SAT Jul 31 | 11:30p

Musa Hadid is the Christian mayor of Ramallah, the de facto capital of the Palestinian Authority. The film asks with humor and outrage: How do you run a city if you don't have a country?
