Celebrate Black Stories

TUESDAYS Oct 4 & 11 | 10p

Oscar-nominated filmmaker Stanley Nelson explores two inspiring Black stories this month. Don't miss Harriet Tubman: Visions of Freedom on October 4. Go beyond the legend and meet the inspiring woman who repeatedly risked her own life and freedom to liberate others from slavery. Born 200 years ago, Harriet Tubman was a conductor of the Underground Railroad, a Civil War scout, a nurse, a spy and one of the greatest freedom fighters in our nation's history. The film is narrated by Emmy Award-winning actor Alfre Woodard.

Then, on October 11, discover how a man born into slavery became one of the most influential voices for democracy in American history with Becoming Frederick Douglass. A gifted writer and powerful, charismatic orator, it is estimated that more Americans heard Douglass speak than any other 19th-century figure — Black or white. The documentary explores how Douglass controlled his own image and narrative and features the voice of acclaimed actor Wendell Pierce as Douglass.

Secrets of the Dead

New episodes this month!

"Archaeology of Althorp" premieres on Sunday, October 9, at 8:00 p.m. Charles Spencer, best-selling historian and brother to the late Princess Diana, may be sitting on the greatest British archaeological find of the century. Olletorp, an Anglo-Saxon village dating back 1,000 years, is buried beneath the Spencer estate. Led by archaeologists from Oxford, the dig finds bits of pottery and likely roads but no medieval village. But just as they're ready to give up, a far more significant discovery is made.

Then on Wednesday, October 19, at 10:00 p.m., "Last Days of Pompeii" asks, what were the final days in Pompeii like before the eruption of Mount Vesuvius 2,000 years ago?

"The End of the Romans," airing Wednesday, October 26, at 10:00 p.m., investigates how three successive waves of deadly epidemics and powerful temperature drops could have caused the collapse of the Empire — and draw frightening parallels to today.

NATURE

WEDNESDAYS Oct 19 & 26 | 8p

On October 19, "Running with the Beast" celebrates the spectacle of the The Great East African Migration that can be seen from space. More than one million wildebeest, along with zebras, gazelles and elands, journey in a quest to find fresh grass. Then on October 26, "Canada: Surviving the Wild North," tells a series of stories about survival, where timing and opportunity can mean the difference between life and death.

Dia de los Muertos HH

FRI Oct 28 | 9p

Taped before a live audience in the “underworld” of The Caverns subterranean amphitheater, Día de los Muertos is a musical celebration of this much anticipated and highly celebrated fiesta by people of Mexican heritage everywhere. Special guests include Latino rock greats Los Lobos and the salsa-rap-reggae-funk band Ozomatli — as well as the all-female mariachi band Flor de Toloache. Between performances, short vignettes explain the meaning, origins and significance of these two important days on the Latinx calendar and explore the traditions deeply rooted in this holiday.
