New York Philharmonic Reopening of David Geffen Hall

FRI Nov 4 | 9p

The New York Philharmonic celebrates the reopening of its fully renovated home at Lincoln Center's David Geffen Hall with a triumphant performance of Beethoven's 9th Symphony, conducted by the Phil's music director, Jaap van Zweden. The opening of the state-of-the-art facility reaffirms the essential role of New York City's cultural life, as well as marks a historic comeback for the world's most dynamic city for the arts following the challenges of the COVID-19 pandemic.

Taken Hostage

MON Nov 14 | 9p

Revisit the Iran hostage crisis, when 52 Americans were held hostage at the U.S. Embassy in Tehran. Unfolding like a political thriller, the story is told through the eyewitness accounts of those who took part in the events. The two-part film is anchored by the personal narratives of several individuals who were there, including hostage Barry Rosen and his wife, Barbara; two pioneering female foreign correspondents who covered the crisis; and Gary Sick, a member of the National Security Council under President Carter and his advisor on Iran.

Buffy Sainte-Marie: Carry It On N

TUE Nov 22 | 9p

This inspiring documentary film chronicles the remarkable story of Indigenous artist Buffy Sainte-Marie as she rises to prominence in New York's Greenwich Village folk music scene and blazes a groundbreaking path as an Oscar-winning singer-songwriter, social activist, educator and artist.

Nazca Desert Mystery | Nov 2

Who created the Nazca lines, one of archaeology's greatest enigmas, and why? Recent finds of long-hidden lines and figures etched into the Peruvian desert offer new clues to the origins and purpose behind these giant desert symbols.

Crypto Decoded | Nov 9

From Bitcoin to NFTs, cryptocurrencies are making headlines and claiming a growing slice of global financial activity. But what exactly are they, and how do they work? A wide range of experts go beyond the hype to unravel the social and technological underpinnings of "crypto" — exploring the possibility that this new technology may change much more than just money.

Zero to Infinity | Nov 16

Numbers. We know them like the backs of our hands — we even count them on our fingers. But you might be surprised to hear the fascinating story of how key mathematical concepts such as zero and infinity were invented and reinvented by different cultures across thousands of years. The idea of zero and infinity didn't always exist. These seemingly opposite, obvious and indispensable concepts are relatively recent human inventions. In this episode, discover the surprising story of how these key principles that revolutionized mathematics came to be.

NATURE

Two new specials! WEDNESDAYS | 8p

On November 2, “Woodpeckers: The Hole Story” explores 240 species of woodpeckers. This film pecks away at what makes woodpeckers so special, following intimate stories of two very different families raising their young and exploring woodpeckers’ unique evolutionary journey and the powerful role they play in every ecosystem they inhabit.

Then, on November 9, don’t miss “American Ocelot,” chronicling the sad history, precarious present and optimistic future of the United States’ most endangered wild cat: the ocelot. Through camera trap cinematography, the film offers a never-before-seen glimpse into the struggle, love and determination required of a mother ocelot to raise her young successfully — and the stakes could not be higher. With fewer than 80 known ocelots remaining in the U.S., each kitten is precious to the future of the American ocelot population.

The First Attack Ads: Hollywood vs. Upton Sinclair

FRI Nov 4 | 10:30p

In 1934, famed writer and socialist Upton Sinclair swept the Democratic primary for governor of California. To defeat him that fall, his opponents created one of the dirtiest, and most influential, campaigns in U.S. history.

The Lost Salmon

WED Nov 9 | 7p

The Lost Salmon chronicles the plight and potential recovery of the iconic spring Chinook salmon of the Pacific Northwest. Faced with extinction in many river systems of the West, a new genetic discovery could aid in their recovery. Once teeming in the millions along the West Coast and sacred to the oldest civilizations in the Americas, time is running out for the genetically distinct wild springers and the new genetic discovery could lead to their protection under the Endangered Species Act.

HONOR VETERANS DAY

KCTS 9 salutes our veterans with two special programs.

FRI Nov 11 | Beginning at 9p

At 9:00 p.m., USO - For the Troops takes viewers behind the scenes and inside the organization, providing an eye-opening glimpse into how the USO has kept service personnel connected to country, home, family and hope for more than 75 years.

Then, at 10:00 p.m., Songwriting with Soldiers celebrates a unique collaborative of professional artists working with veterans and families to tell stories of war and the return home through lyrics and song. This concert special honors music's power to heal and bring people together.

Tutankhamun: Allies & Enemies

WED Nov 23 | 8p

This November 4 marks the 100th anniversary of the opening of King Tut's tomb, yet so many mysteries remain. Produced by an Egyptian crew, the film goes beyond examining Tut's tomb and treasures, instead seeking to share Tut's story from his point of view and to unpack the short-lived human existence of the "Boy King." On their exploration across Egypt and the Americas, they meet with historians, archaeologists and scientists to inspect historical inconsistencies and delve into secrets surrounding Tut's childhood and family.
