Refuge After War

SERIES PREMIERE

FRI Mar 3 | 8:50p

Witness the experiences of Vietnamese and Afghan refugees forced to flee and resettle in Washington state after the falls of Saigon in 1975 and Kabul in 2021. Through the eyes of director Thanh Tan, a daughter of refugees, this series is a personal examination of the power, the trauma and the challenges of refugee resettlement in the 21st century — and a reflection of America's ongoing failure to learn from the past. This program is part of Crosscut Origins, a docuseries project with local filmmakers to reflect on the makeup of our region told from insiders' perspectives.

The Hours W FRI Mar 17 | 9p

Renée Fleming, Joyce DiDonato and Kelli O'Hara star in a compelling new opera about three women in different times and places — and the spaces between them that both separate and connect them. "The Hours" is based on the novel by Michael Cunningham and the 2002 Academy Award-winning film adaptation that followed. Both the book and the film make central reference to an earlier novel, Virginia Woolf's 1925 Mrs. Dalloway, which forms a sort of parallel background narrative.

AMERICAN EXPERIENCE

The Movement and the Madman

TUE Mar 28 | 9p

This film shows how two antiwar protests in the fall of 1969 — the largest America had ever seen — caused President Nixon to cancel what he called his "madman" plans for a massive escalation of the U.S. war in Vietnam, including his threats to use nuclear weapons. At the time, protestors had no idea what they had prevented and how many lives they had saved.
